About Cascade

Cascade products are the first to feature Lube Play™, the world’s first true self-lubrication technology.

Cascade and LubePlay™ Technology have been developed to allow you the freedom to explore and discover a new way to play. Combining a luxury vibrator with the ability to release just the right amount of lubricant at the touch of a button, Cascade, is a truly unique experience.

Designed in the UK by the dedicated team at Love Life Products, then created using the finest quality materials and lovingly packaged to complete the experience. For you or with a partner, Cascade products will add a new element to your play.
